HOLD AS DESERTER GORMAN'S RELATIVE

Charles J. Magness, Husband of the Late Senator Gorman's Daughter, Caught in Louisville.

HAS $24,000, BONDS, CASH

Enlisted in the Navy Under the Name of Hartlove and Was a Musician on the Dolphin.

Special to The New York Times.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 21.—On the charge of being a deserter from the United States Navy Charles Joseph Magness, who married Miss Ada Gorman, a daughter of the late Senator Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland, was arrested this morning at the Seelbach. Mrs. Magness was shocked when her husband was arrested and said she did not know he was a deserter. When Magness, or Hartlove, as he was known in the navy, was taken from his room shortly after midnight by detectives he denied that he was either Magness or Hartlove.

Later Magness admitted that he is a deserter and married Senator Gorman's daughter in this city Sept. 5. When searched Magness had eighteen $1,000 Government bonds and about $6,000 in cash in his possession. Mrs. Magness was removed to the boarding house of Mrs. Lillie R. Rawles, 309 West Walnut Street, where she is under the care of a nurse.

The Rev. W. N. Briney, pastor of the Broadway Christian Church, married Miss Gorman and Magness at his home, 210 East Gray Street on Sept. 5. Miss Gorman before her marriage moved in Congressional circles, and for years was a leader in both Baltimore and Washington society.

Magness told the detectives yesterday that he had enlisted in the navy three years ago and used his mother's maiden name, Hartlove. He admitted that Magness was his real name, and that his people lived at 838 Chestnut Street, Baltimore, Md.

Detectives High and Peak received information yesterday that Magness and his wife were to return to Louisville Tuesday night.

Magness was presented in the police court this morning on a charge of desertion from the navy, and he will be delivered to the naval authorities. Mrs. Magness pleaded with the authorities to permit her to remain with her husband at the jail, where he will be confined until transportation is sent the naval authorities here from Washington.

Magness recently purchased a fine horse, and was negotiating for the purchase of a costly automobile.

Magness is 23 years of age, according to the record of his enlistment, while Mrs. Magness is said to be older. Those who have met her during her stay in Louisville say that she is a woman of charming manner.

The New York Times
Published: October 22, 1908
Copyright © The New York Times