Message from the Chancellor

Dear Class of 2026:

Today, as we celebrate the University of California, Irvine's 66th commencement, enjoy the pride, nostalgia, and excitement of the moment. As you participate in these time-honored graduation rites, I encourage you to remember that you did not achieve this success alone or in a vacuum. Please take the time to thank the family, friends, and mentors who have supported and shepherded you through this journey.

All of us are extremely proud of your accomplishments and the contributions you have made to UC Irvine and our community. I am even more excited, though, by what lies ahead for you, as you enter the world enabled, empowered, and inspired to succeed in whatever endeavors you choose to pursue.

Today, as you join the proud alumni of UC Irvine, you become part of a family of graduates who are leaders, innovators, and teachers who make a difference in our global community. Please come back and visit us, update us with news on your careers, and stay in touch through the Alumni Association. Wherever the future leads you, you will always be remembered at UC Irvine.

Fiat Lux,

Howard Gillman
Chancellor

Message from the Vice Chancellor, Student Affairs

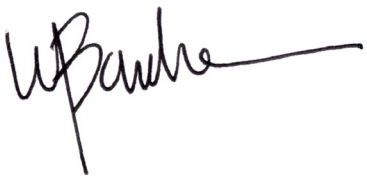

Dear Class of 2026 Graduates:

Congratulations!!! As you and your loved ones prepare to celebrate your achievements this month, I hope you are able to take a moment to reflect on how far you have come.

You are now a graduate of one of the premier institutions of learning, and join an alumni network of more than 274,000 anteaters around the world. You should be proud of all that you have accomplished during your time at UC Irvine. My sincere hope is that you have taken the past years to learn more about yourself, your community, and your academic major. All of us in the Division of Student Affairs are confident that you will use everything you have learned during your time at UC Irvine to transform not only yourself, but also the world.

As you close this chapter in your life, take some time to thank your family and friends for their support. Your graduation from UC Irvine is a reflection of their love and support for you through this time. Make sure to take time and savor this moment. I hope that you will remember your college days fondly, and that one day you will tell the story of UC Irvine and how your life was changed by being here. You are an Anteater for life and we could not be more proud to have you as one of our proud alumni!

Congratulations and Zot, Zot, Zot!

Willie L. Banks Jr., Ph.D.
Vice Chancellor, Student Affairs

Claire Trevor School of the Arts

Dear Graduating Artists,

Congratulations, Class of 2026! We are incredibly proud and inspired by all that you have accomplished and the paths you have forged at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts and UC Irvine. You graduate from the only named school of the arts within the University of California system, completing your college education within a vibrant community of fellow artists at a globally renowned research university. As dreamers and doers, you now boldly launch into your future as visionary creatives and esteemed alumni.

In this pivotal cultural moment, artists are needed now more than ever. Your generation is being counted on to innovate new careers, reimagine industries, and enrich the meaning of work itself. Your experience and training in the arts, fueled by your vision and voice, position you as powerful catalysts for bettering the world. As artists, you understand the power of inspiration to affect and move people. The future needs your creativity, and it is yours to shape.

As you step into this next chapter, be confident that your unique ability to express ideas, work collaboratively, and inspire others is highly valued across diverse fields. Today's complex challenges require teams who possess the skills and creative toolbox you carry, including open expression, active listening, and engaging a wide range of people and ideas. Your artistry has the power to reshape perspectives and pathways. More than half of the careers in your future will be ones you expand and invent! We are excited to see how you build on your experiences and contribute your talents to a range of fields, within the creative economy and beyond.

During your time at UCI Arts, you have built an incredible network of friends, mentors, and colleagues who will continue to be your supporters and champions. Please stay connected, share your accomplishments with us, and continue to call on us as a resource. We love to spotlight the many ways our graduates put their arts education into practice. We also value connecting alumni with our current students, who are inspired by your journeys and benefit from your guidance as a mentor.

Today, we celebrate your achievements, your bravery, and your boldness. Thank you for your contributions and for enhancing the excellence of our school. We look forward to staying connected and following your continued journey.

Heartfelt congratulations and best wishes as you embark on this next chapter!

Charlie Dunlop School of Biological Sciences

Dear Class of 2026,

Congratulations on your graduation from UC Irvine and the Charlie Dunlop School of Biological Sciences. Completing one of the most rigorous undergraduate programs on campus is a remarkable achievement — and a testament to your resilience, discipline and determination.

As you celebrate Commencement today, take a moment to recognize what you've built here: the ability to ask sharp questions, evaluate evidence, collaborate across disciplines and persist through challenges. These habits — grounded in curiosity and integrity — will serve you in any path you choose, from research and medicine to industry, education, public service and beyond.

As you step into this next chapter, I hope you carry forward the personal lessons that helped you succeed here: perseverance, adaptability and confidence in your capacity to learn. BioSci will always be part of who you are, and I encourage you to stay connected as alumni — so we can celebrate your milestones, support your ambitions and invite you to inspire the students who follow in your footsteps.

Best wishes,

Frank M. LaFerla, Ph.D.

The Paul Merage School of Business

Graduates, families, friends, and members of the Merage School community,

Congratulations to the Class of 2026. Today marks both a milestone and a beginning. You arrived at the Paul Merage School of Business during a period of profound transformation in business, technology, and society, and you leave equipped to help shape what comes next.

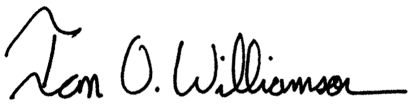

Throughout your time here, you have learned that leadership today requires more than technical skill or business acumen alone. It requires curiosity, adaptability, ethical judgment, and the ability to lead through uncertainty. You have studied in classrooms where theory meets application, collaborated with peers from around the world, and engaged with ideas that challenge conventional thinking. In doing so, you have prepared yourselves to lead in a digitally driven world.

The future you are entering will continue to evolve at extraordinary speed. New technologies will reshape industries. Global challenges will demand thoughtful, inclusive solutions. Organizations will look not just for managers, but for leaders who can think strategically, act responsibly, and center people in every decision. At Merage, our mission has been to help you develop exactly those capabilities.

As you take this next step, remember that your degree represents more than what you have accomplished. It reflects who you have become and the values you carry forward. Whether you choose to innovate, to build, to serve, or to transform existing institutions, you do so as part of a global network of Merage alumni committed to impact with purpose.

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and alumni of the Paul Merage School of Business, thank you for the energy, perspective, and ambition you brought to our community. We are proud of you, and we look forward to seeing the leadership you will demonstrate in the years ahead.

Congratulations, Class of 2026.

Ian O. Williamson, Ph.D.
Dean, Paul Merage School of Business

School of Education

To the School of Education Class of 2026,

You did it. Congratulations Class of 2026, on reaching this incredible milestone. It is a tremendous accomplishment, one that you have earned through dedication, hard work, and perseverance.

Whether you are graduating with a Doctor of Philosophy in Education, a Master of Arts in Teaching, a Bachelor of Arts in Education Sciences, or you are completing the CalTeach program, you leave UC Irvine with the skills, insight, and passion to make a meaningful difference. You are ready to inspire change, empower learners, and build a more inclusive and educated society.

The world is constantly changing, and we are living through a time that asks a great deal of all of us. During your time at UCI, we have worked to prepare you for the opportunities and challenges ahead. The knowledge you gained here, along with the relationships you built in and outside the classroom, will serve you well as you contribute to research, policy, teaching, innovation, and advocacy in education.

As you move into this next chapter, I hope you carry forward the curiosity, compassion and commitment that brought you to this moment. Education doesn't end at graduation; it evolves with you. Keep learning, keep questioning, and keep showing up for others.

The School of Education community is proud of all you have accomplished and grateful for your commitment to improving education for all. We hope you'll stay connected, visit often, and remain engaged as part of the rich and diverse alumnae community we are proud to call part of the UC Irvine family!

Congratulations to you, and to the families, friends, and loved ones who have supported you on this journey. Wishing you continued success, purpose, and fulfillment in the years ahead.

Zot! Zot! Zot!,

Julie Washington, Ph.D.
Professor & Interim Dean, School of Education

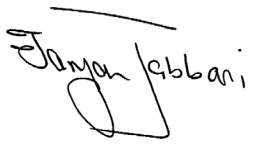

Samueli School of Engineering

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the Sameuli School of Engineering, I congratulate you and your family on this important achievement. Your hard work, dedication, and commitment over the last few years were not solely for this milestone. They were the preparation for the many successes and achievements that you will have in your life. The credentials that you will receive from us are the outward symbols of the inner strengths you have worked on and developed. Well done.

Please stay in touch through the Engineering Alumni Society and UCI Alumni Association. But more importantly, know that the friends and the bonds you have made here will serve you well, be it in times of joy and celebration or difficulty and challenge. None of us got here alone.

Congratulations! Live life fully, have courage and confidence as you have the skills and talents to lead and the inner strength to share. And .... never feel awkward that your school's mascot is a little eccentric! Say Zot, Zot, Zot proudly!

Faryar Jabbari, Ph.D.

Professor, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
Samueli School of Engineering

Susan & Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences

Congratulations, Class of 2026!

Graduates of the Susan & Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences, today we celebrate you—your hard work, your resilience, and the commitment that brought you to this moment. Earning your degree is no small feat, and you should take great pride in all you have accomplished.

During your time at UC Irvine, you have been part of something truly special. As the university marks its 60th anniversary, you have helped shape a period of extraordinary growth and momentum. More importantly, you have brought our mission—Discover, Teach, Heal—to life through your curiosity, compassion and drive to make a difference.

You leave UCI at a time of exciting progress in health sciences: This year we completed our state-of-the-art UCI Health — Irvine medical campus, fulfilling a vision of the university's founders. But we are not slowing down. With the new community hospital network and addition of a rehabilitation hospital this summer, our expanding health system will serve millions across Southern California.

At the same time, innovation and discovery are accelerating across campus: The Falling Leaves Foundation Medical Innovation Building, which opened this past fall, now brings together researchers and clinicians from across disciplines to advance new approaches to prevention and treatment for conditions ranging from diabetes and depression to cancer and Alzheimer's. It is a powerful example of the collaborative environment you have been part of—and one you will carry forward in your careers.

You have seen that collaboration is essential to solving the most complex challenges in health. Across disciplines, you have worked together to break down barriers between research, education and care—an approach that will define the future of medicine. Whether you pursue paths in medicine, nursing, pharmacy, public health or beyond, you carry with you the knowledge, skills and perspective to improve lives.

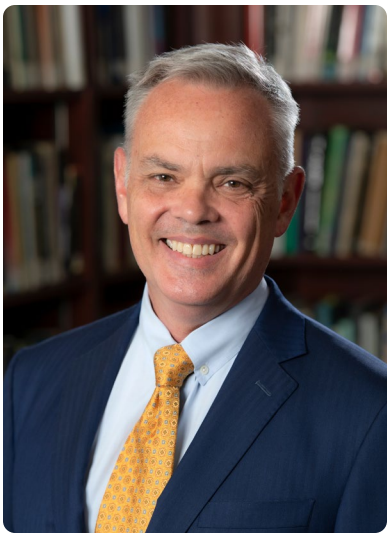

The world you are entering needs you—your ideas, your empathy and your determination. Stay curious. Keep learning. Hold on to the values that brought you here, and approach each challenge with patience, persistence and compassion.

Wherever your journey takes you next, know that UCI is proud to be part of your story. We will continue to measure our success by yours, and we look forward to seeing all that you accomplish. Please stay in touch. You will always be a member of the Anteater family.

With my warmest congratulations and best wishes for the future,

Steven Goldstein, MA, MD, Ph.D., FAAP
Vice Chancellor, Health Affairs

Sue & Bill Gross School of Nursing

Commencement is when you begin, and beginnings call for both celebration and reflection.

As a graduate of the UCI Sue & Bill Gross School of Nursing, you are joining the community of nurses in a new way, to do new things with your vocation. A vocation is when you find joy in doing good things for others. And the nurses graduating in 2026 have earned that joy in ways few generations before you have. You have learned your craft in a world still finding its footing after a pandemic that asked nurses to be the last human presence at bedsides where families could not go — and proved, beyond any doubt, the irreplaceable worth of our profession. Now you enter practice in an age of remarkable technology, where the most remarkable thing you will bring remains what no technology can: your humanity.

I trust that today you are experiencing this joy, as I am when I think of your achievement. Share it with your friends and family. They, after all, helped you to get here. And take it with you as you care for people in hospitals or homes, as you discover new knowledge or translate it into practice, as you change policy or educate the next generation of nurse leaders. Whatever you find yourself doing as a UC Irvine nurse, you will do it as a member of the world's largest and most trusted profession. That, itself, is a joyous thought.

Take great pride in your accomplishment being celebrated today. This is your ceremony, and it marks not just your having earned the degree being conferred upon you, but your belonging to the great, wide, wonderful community of nurses. Congratulations.

Mark Lazenby, R.N., Ph.D., FAAN
Dean and Professor of Nursing and Philosophy
Sue & Bill Gross School of Nursing

School of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences

Congratulations to the UC Irvine BS in Pharmaceutical Sciences Class of 2026!

Today, we are celebrating all your successes that got you here and everything you will accomplish from this point on. You should be immensely proud of your hard work!

Through the study of pharmaceutical sciences, you have joined a community of scientific minds who are spearheading crucial improvements in our society's health and wellbeing. I have no doubt you will all go on to drive changes in health care, academia, research, and government, helping to advance therapeutics and medicine, apply innovation, and add healthy years to human lives.

The BS in Pharmaceutical Sciences program in the UC Irvine School of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences has prepared you for careers in the health sciences and pharmaceutical industries, as well as the pursuit of graduate degrees such as PhD, MD, or PharmD. Whether you are pursuing further education or entering the workforce, we are certain you will succeed!

As graduates of this program, you are now part of an expansive network of alumni whose work is propelling us toward a brighter, healthier future. Welcome to the Anteaters in Pharmacy alumni family — please keep in touch!

Our faculty, staff, alumni, friends, and community are so proud of everything you have accomplished during your time in this program, and we are looking forward to seeing what you will do next. Congratulations Anteaters!

Jan Hirsch, Ph.D.
Founding Dean, School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

Joe C. Wen School of Population & Public Health

Congratulations to the Class of 2026 on this remarkable milestone. On behalf of our faculty, staff, and fellow Anteaters, I extend my warmest congratulations as you celebrate your commencement from the UC Irvine Joe C. Wen School of Population & Public Health. As members of our early graduating cohorts, you carry forward the legacy begun by our inaugural class and continue to shape what Wen Public Health will become. Your achievements reflect not only your resilience and dedication, but also the strength of a school whose foundation you have helped build.

This past year has not been easy. Many of you navigated uncertainty, competing demands, and moments that tested your resolve—yet you showed up for your communities, your work, and one another. In doing so, you demonstrated what public health requires most: resilience grounded in purpose, and a commitment to move forward even when the path is unclear.

Over the past few years, you have contributed to work that addresses some of the most pressing challenges of our time—from advancing health equity to understanding the impacts of climate change on population health. Just as importantly, you have learned to communicate science with clarity and care, ensuring that evidence does not remain confined to journals, but reaches the people and communities it is meant to serve. This ability—to translate knowledge into action and trust—will define your impact as public health leaders.

As you move forward, I encourage you to think not only about lifespan, but healthspan—and even joy span. Public health is not only about helping people live longer, but about ensuring those years are lived with dignity, vitality, and joy. Your work has the power to shape all three.

I will not tell you the road ahead will be easy—it seldom is. For every achievement, there will be challenges and barriers to overcome. Embrace mistakes; they serve a purpose. When you reach a milestone or step into a new opportunity, know that you belong there and have earned it.

As you stand on the threshold of this next chapter, remember that the world needs public health leaders like you—leaders who challenge the status quo, build authentic partnerships, and work to create healthier, more equitable futures. Whether you pursue careers in research, policy, advocacy, or practice, your contributions will matter deeply.

Thank you for all you have given to our school and for setting a high standard for those who will follow. Go forward with confidence and purpose, knowing you are helping to shape the future of public health. At a time when trust in science is being tested, your voice, your integrity, and your commitment to evidence have never been more important.

Congratulations, Class of 2026. We are proud of you, and we look forward to all that you will achieve.

Bernadette Boden-Albala, Ph.D., M.P.H.
Founding Dean, Joe C. Wen School of Population and Public Health

School of Humanities

On this happy occasion of your commencement, you are each concluding your study at UC Irvine and embarking on a new life as the proud holder of a University of California degree in a humanities field.

Let me be the first to congratulate you. You are a select group who worked tirelessly to be admitted to UCI, and to excel in your majors. You put in hard nights of reading and writing papers and studying for exams and meeting your requirements one by one. Your goal was not just to get a good grade on one assignment, or completing a course, or even meeting all the requirements of your major. It was always something that lies beyond the boundaries of the campus and its program: opening up the opportunities in your life that your UCI degree makes possible, and that at this moment of commencement you can't even yet fully foresee. These include the possibility to go on to more advanced study in graduate or professional school; to make your mark in government, media, or business; or to lead and serve in your community, at home or perhaps elsewhere in the world.

The humanities focus on the histories and cultures of the world, the images and stories we use to represent the human experience, and the theories and concepts that we use to make sense of our world. Human meaning-making is an ongoing and ever-evolving process, and the skills you have gained in understanding and contributing to it never go out of date or lose their relevance. Our world is changing at an extraordinary pace. We need humanities-trained leaders and thinkers like you to help us to make sense of it all, make conscious and ethical choices, and imagine new ways of living and working in a radically changed environment.

You will bring the skills you have learned here—to listen and read closely, to think critically and analytically, to interpret texts and images, and to write with clarity and power—to all the work you have ahead of you. We have prepared you not just for a job, but for a career of your own making, which may have many new turns and changes along the way.

But through the lenses of the humanities, we have also prepared you to appreciate better the beauty, complexity, and richness of the world, to experience it with depth and knowledge. That is not just an enhancement to your career or your earning power; it is the basis of a richer, more authentic, and more meaningful life.

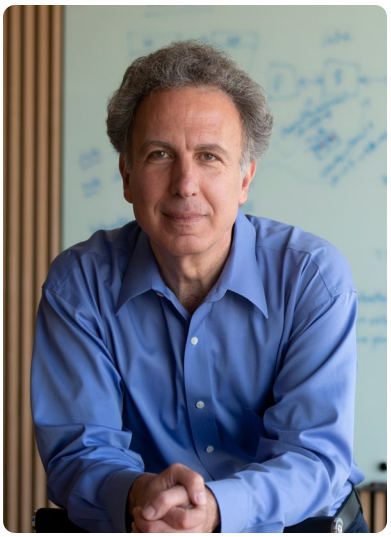

I wish you every success in your future, and the deepest appreciation for what you have given us by your presence in the School of Humanities during your studies.

Congratulations and enjoy your commencement!

Tyrus Miller, Ph.D.
Dean, School of Humanities

Donald Bren School of Information & Computer Sciences

The world runs on technology: from artificial intelligence to big data, from digital media and learning to digital health, from cybersecurity to human-machine interaction. These technologies represent only a few of the cutting-edge areas that faculty, students and alumni from the Donald Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences (ICS) have been advancing, making the world a better, safer, accessible, and more inclusive place through the exploration of emerging information technologies, innovative and broad computing curricula, and interdisciplinary collaborations that address key societal needs.

As students of ICS, one of the first computing-focused schools in the nation and the only one on the West Coast, you have helped it grow into one of the largest, most enriching, and most diverse computing programs in the country. You have shown incredible creativity and entrepreneurial spirit during your time at UC Irvine, and you are now prepared to lead the way in creating a bright future for society.

As alumni of ICS, you will have many good reasons and excellent opportunities to remain connected with our School. Whether you are continuing your education or joining the workforce, remember that you are now part of a growing ICS alumni network with over 20,000 members who want to see you succeed. Please stay in touch so that we can celebrate your successes and help you connect with other accomplished ICS alums.

Congratulations to the Class of 2026! The ICS faculty and staff take great pride in your accomplishments and look forward to watching you continue to make a positive difference in the world.

School of Law

Dear Graduates and their Guests,

On behalf of our faculty, staff, alumni, and the entire University of California, Irvine School of Law community, congratulations. You are an exceptional class that has enriched UC Irvine in so many ways.

Over the past three years, you have left your mark. You have worked incredibly hard, and you have proven yourselves leaders in the classroom and in the community. You have served others, making a difference with many hours of pro bono work and community service. You have done much within the school too: you strengthened student organizations, you worked in centers, clinics, institutes, and programs, you represented the school in so many contexts, and you helped recruit new students to our school. Your creativity and passion have shaped our exceptional law school.

Soon, you will begin your legal careers. You will take all that you have studied and learned, and you will carry those lessons with you in the years ahead. I have no doubt you will become leaders and among the nation's top advocates in your chosen fields and practice areas. The profession you have chosen has never been more important and the work more consequential. So, as you cross the stage to receive your degrees, know that the faculty, staff, and alumni are cheering you on, and wishing you every success in the future that lies ahead. We are so very proud of you, and we are eager to see all that you will accomplish. And, as you go on to do great things, our hope is you won't forget your days here and the people you met. I know we won't forget you.

To the guests of our graduates, a special thank you for your sacrifices and support. Law school is challenging, and we know behind our students are family, friends, and loved ones. Thank you for all you have done.

Congratulations again to the Class of 2026. We are so very proud of this class. Take good care and please stay in touch,

Austen Parrish, J.D.
Dean and Chancellor's Professor of Law
University of California, Irvine School of Law

School of Medicine

Dear Class of 2026,

On behalf of the faculty and staff at the UC Irvine School of Medicine, congratulations on reaching this significant milestone in your educational journey. Commencement is more than just a ceremony – it marks the moment you fully embrace a calling defined by lifelong learning, compassionate service, and the advancement of human health through discovery and care.

We are immensely proud of each of you and excited to witness the contributions you will make as you join a global network of proud School of Medicine Anteaters. Each of you arrived here by a different path, yet you are united by a shared purpose. You chose a demanding road and met it with perseverance, curiosity and integrity. Along the way, family, friends, peers and mentors invested in your success. Please take time to thank them today – and in the years ahead, honor that commitment by mentoring others, widening pathways into medicine and science, and giving back to the communities that helped shape you.

Your education and training at UC Irvine have prepared you to ask bold questions, follow evidence and work collaboratively across disciplines to solve complex problems. Medicine and the biomedical sciences remain the foundation of healthier, more resilient communities. You leave here not only with knowledge and technical skill, but with the habit of placing patients and populations at the center of every decision.

You also graduate at a moment of remarkable momentum for our academic health system. The recent opening of UCI Health – Irvine, the nation's first all-electric hospital, and the Falling Leaves Foundation Medical Innovation Building, one of the largest interdisciplinary discovery and translational research hubs on the West Coast, reflect the institution's growth and ambition. You are part of this progress, and your future work will continue to shape it.

To our graduating MD class: you are preparing to begin post-graduate training in over 20 medical specialties. More than 80% of you will remain in California (many in the UC system), and many will serve in underserved communities where compassionate, well-trained physicians are needed most. That commitment makes us especially proud. As you move forward, lead with empathy, practice with integrity, and let science, teamwork and the needs of your patients guide you. It is an honor to welcome you as colleagues in the medical profession.

To our graduating Master of Science, PhD and MD/PhD students: your work will influence how we understand and treat disease, advance detection and treatment, and translate discoveries into better outcomes for patients. Whether your path leads to academia, industry or clinical care, we look forward to the collaborations you will spark and the innovations you will drive.

To all our graduates, our tripartite mission – Discover. Teach. Heal. – now lives on through you. Each year, we celebrate more than 150 graduates across our degree programs and more than 250 residents and fellows completing rigorous training. As you step into your next chapters, you become ambassadors for this school. Through your excellence and compassion, the world will see what the UC Irvine School of Medicine represents.

Stay curious. Listen deeply. Invest in mentorship. Build teams that reflect the diversity of the communities you serve. And remain connected to the School of Medicine as we continue to grow and innovate. We hope you will be part of what comes next.

Congratulations to the UC Irvine School of Medicine Class of 2026! Go forward with confidence and purpose — your impact begins now.

Zot! Zot! Zot!

Dean, School of Medicine

School of Physical Sciences

Congratulations, graduates of the School of Physical Sciences!

You've done something remarkable. The long nights in labs, the problem sets that refused to yield, the experiments that finally worked, have all led to this moment. You've earned your degree at UC Irvine, a challenge you should be proud to have met.

Almost half of you took part in undergraduate research, and a significant number have secured places in graduate and professional programs. I commend those who embraced the opportunity to join our mentorship program, an experience that will positively influence your lives well beyond your time at UC Irvine. I hope one day you'll come back as mentors yourselves, ready to share what you've learned along the way.

Your journey from here will be as varied as the disciplines within our School. Some of you will chase down mathematical truths; others will design new materials, model the climate, or explore the quantum or cosmic frontiers. However your curiosity manifests, never forget that it's curiosity, paired with persistence, that will always be your greatest asset.

In these challenging times, now more than ever, the world needs thinkers like you: scientists, mathematicians, explorers of the unknown. So, keep pushing boundaries. Keep asking bold questions. And never lose that spark of wonder that brought you here in the first place.

Congratulations once again, You've got a bright future ahead, and I can't wait to see what you do with it.

Sincerely,

Kieron Burke

School of Social Ecology

Dear Class of 2026:

Congratulations on earning your degree from the School of Social Ecology!

As we honor your accomplishments, we extend our best wishes for continued success as you embark on the next chapter of your journey. Your degree comes from a school renowned for interdisciplinary research, collaborative science, and community-engaged scholarship. Throughout your time here, you have learned and conducted research alongside faculty and peers who are united by a dedication to understanding human behavior and a passion for creating positive change. Our courses, research initiatives, and field experiences are designed to address some of the most pressing social and environmental challenges facing our world today — from mass incarceration and environmental sustainability to homelessness, poverty, mental health, and beyond. Now that you have reached this milestone in your education, we encourage you to apply what you have learned and become agents of meaningful change.

Our school is also deeply committed to the principles of equity and justice. We have equipped you to consider how you can contribute to building a more just and equitable society. As you pursue your next endeavors, we will watch with great pride and anticipation as you bring that heightened sense of purpose to all that you do.

Whatever path lies ahead or wherever your journey takes you, please know that we are immensely proud of you and all you have achieved. As members of the Social Ecology alumni community, we hope you will remain connected with us so we can continue to celebrate your future successes.

Congratulations on your graduation, and go forward to make a difference in the world!

Best wishes,

Jon B. Gould, Ph.D.
Dean, School of Social Ecology

School of Social Sciences

Congratulations, UCI social sciences graduates! I'm so proud to welcome you as our newest members of the Social Sciences Alumni Network. With your graduation today, you are joining an elite group of more than 64,000 changemakers who can be found everywhere from the halls of justice in D.C. to capitals around the world engaged in work that's truly changing lives. Our alumni are making a difference through entrepreneurial endeavors from Northgate to Northern Africa, in courtrooms across the nation, boardrooms in some of the world's top companies, and classrooms around the globe training our next generation of leaders.

While each of your pathways to this degree has been unique, your shared experiences as an Anteater will stay with you long after leaving campus today. And no matter your story, you've all shown the true resiliency of the soc sci Anteater spirit.

As you embark on your next chapter, your individual versions of "what's next," I challenge each of you to continue pursuing a future that makes the world a better place than you've found it. Be bold, always break the mold, and be boundaryless in your pursuit.

Congratulations, social sciences graduates of the class of 2026.

Zot, zot, zot!

Bill Maurer, Ph.D.
Dean, School of Social Sciences
Professor, Department of Anthropology and School of Law
Director, Institute for Money, Technology and Financial Inclusion

Graduate Division

Dear Graduates, Families, and Friends,

Today's commencement ceremony marks a celebration of exceptional achievement. The Class of 2026 embodies the dedication, resilience, and brilliance that define UC Irvine's graduate scholars.

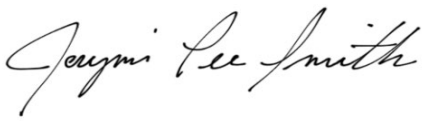

To our graduates: Your journey here has been one of discovery and transformation. You've pushed boundaries in your fields, contributed to our university's legacy, and prepared yourselves to make a meaningful impact in the world. As you step forward, carry with you the values of integrity, inclusivity, and excellence that UC Irvine stands for.

To the families, friends, and mentors who have supported our graduates, thank you for your encouragement and belief in their potential. Your support has been instrumental in their success.

As you celebrate this milestone, know that your Anteater family is immensely proud of you and excited for the future you will help shape. You are now part of a proud family of UC Irvine alumni. I hope you stay in touch and keep us informed of your accomplishments. Celebrate today and know that we look forward to celebrating your successes for years to come.

Congratulations, Class of 2026!

With pride and best wishes,

Jaymi Lee Smith
Interim Vice Provost for Graduate Education
Interim Dean of the Graduate Division

UCI Alumni Association

To the Class of 2026:

Congratulations! Truly, what an accomplishment. I hope as you celebrate this achievement, you can reflect on all that this moment represents for you personally. It is likely the culmination of years-long efforts to not only gain admission to UC Irvine, but to also successfully navigate the coursework and challenges of your studies.

As you mark this moment, I encourage you to make time to pause and reflect – both on how far you've come and on the accomplishments that you take pride in along the way. I hope that you'll also take a moment to express gratitude to all who have been by your side, providing support and guidance — perhaps family, friends, faculty, and mentors.

But please know, while you complete your time here as a student today, you are an Anteater for life.

As an alum you continue to represent UC Irvine, and I hope you do so with pride. Know that with each step forward, you continue to be part of our UC Irvine alumni community. I encourage you to stay connected and remain involved. No matter where you go in the world after today, be sure to stay connected to our Anteater network by engaging with our UC Irvine alumni at regional events, being part of the more than 40 chapters and networks across the world and keeping up to date through our digital alumni magazine The Anteater.

The UC Irvine Alumni network is over 274,000 (and growing!), and includes accomplished individuals who are invested in the success of our community and can help you increase your connection to our alma mater. As an active member of the Alumni Association, you will help continue a tradition that makes UC Irvine and the alumni community itself stronger. Find out how you can leverage the benefits and services of being a member, including access to service, social and networking events, access to alumni travel programs, and access to online research databases and UC libraries across the system.

As you take these next steps forward as a graduate (from one of the top public universities in the nation!) know that we are so proud of you, Anteater.

Zot! Zot! Zot!

UC Irvine Mace

The Mace leads the Commencement processional and is carried by a member of the UCI Alumni Association Board of Directors.

The UCI Alumni Association presented the UCI Mace to the campus on May 12, 2000.

The names of each UCI Chancellor are engraved on the top

Carved from California oak, the Mace is designed to resemble the nose of an anteater, UCI's mascot.
