
KILLED THE MATABELE GOD.]

Burnham, the American Scout, May End the Uprising.

PRETORIA, June 24.—Burnham, the American scout, found in a cave in the Matopopo Hills the famous Matabele god Mlimo, the prompter and fosterer of the Matabele outbreak, and vainly tried to capture Mlimo alive, but, being unable to do so, killed him. It is believed that the death of their god will discourage the natives and lead to the suppression of the revolt.

The New York Times

Published: June 25, 1896

Copyright © The New York Times